

SAMPLE HOMEWORK QUESTIONS

☞ When telling of John the Baptist's ministry, the writers of the three synoptic gospels emphasize his preparation of the Jewish people for the reception of the Messiah. They tell of John's call to repentance and of people confessing their sins and being baptized. Where does John place the emphasis of John the Baptist's ministry in the fourth gospel (John 1:6-36)?

☞ In John 1:35-51 we learn of Jesus' first five disciples: John, Andrew, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael. In addition to the fact that all five were Jewish men, is there anything else significant about these men that they share in common? If so, describe what it is and explain why it is significant.

☞ List three things that Jesus says in John 5:19-47 that confirm that the Jewish rulers were correct when they concluded that Jesus was "making Himself equal with God" (John 5:18).
